Altar Server Notes

Procedure Change (Missal Stand):

When preparing the altar, the Missal Server or Senior Server will immediately deliver and place the missal stand on the corner of the altar. Do your best to place it directly on the altar without sliding it and disturbing the altar cloth. The missal stand will be delivered to the altar while the chalice and tray of ciboria are also being delivered. The missal will continue to be delivered to the altar and handed to the Priest or Deacon when they move the missal stand from the corner to its proper place.

Incense Returns:

Beginning 11/24 incense will be used at each 9:00 and 11:00 mass through mid-January. It will also be used during 40-Hours in October and All Saints on 11/1. Mr. Snyder will be contacting senior servers to schedule a time to review incense procedures (if desired) and to train new senior servers who have not yet performed Thurifer duties.

REMINDER - When there is no Deacon:

The priest will purify the chalice and ciboria at the altar after communion. When the priest returns to the altar, the Credence Server will retrieve the water and stand next to the ambo. When all genuflect and the Priest returns to the altar, the Credence Server will deliver the water to the Priest at the altar and wait to receive it back and return it to the credence table. At that point, the vessels are retrieved from the altar and delivered to the credence table as they are purified by the Priest.

Server Dress Code:

As a reminder, servers should "dress in a manner that is reverent and practical for the ministry." That would include wearing "church clothes." Since servers wear albs and it is mostly the shoes that are visible, that would particularly mean wearing nice shoes. Certainly, no server would be turned away from serving, but if possible, please strive to avoid wearing sneakers, flip-flops, slide-on shoes, and high heels. An additional reminder is that long hair should be pulled back to keep it away from the face and candle flames.
